WARDEN JOHN SNOOK IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Warden John W. Snook, who collapsed at his desk Thursday afternoon while conducting an investigation into the attempted prison break Wednesday night, was in a serious condition at his home Friday from intestinal influenza.

Hope was expressed that Warden Snook would be sufficiently recovered from his illness to resume his duties within about a week or so. The warden's illness halted the quizzing of Roy Gardner, Earl Carrigan, Joe Urbarys and John Boyd, principals in the attempted break.

J. S. WILLIAMS SUPPORTS SMITH

Jackson, Miss., July 20.—(AP)—John Sharp Williams, former United States senator from Mississippi and one of this state's most widely known citizens in a letter to the Jackson Daily News declared he will support Governor Alfred E. Smith for the presidency and expresses surprise "if there be any man knowing me, who can doubt that."

The letter written from Mr. Williams' home at Cedar Grove, was in answer to a query from the News as to his position in the forthcoming national election.

"You ask me if I will support the democratic nominee."

"Of course, I will."

"I am more than surprised, in fact, I am astonished if there be any man knowing me, who can doubt that."

"I shall support the nominee for other reasons based on Jeffersonian principles of American and world democracy far transcending in importance any question of any man's religious convictions."

"... a matter between God and him, not between men and him, and far transcending in importance any question of the enforcement of any sumptuary law."

"Moreover, Governor Smith has been for the most popular and the richest state in the American union and has so conducted himself that he has won the citizen to apply in judging office holders and office-seekers."

Mr. Williams was scheduled to address a meeting of state postmasters here today, but was detained at his home by a minor indisposition induced by his advanced age.

EASTERN STAR HEAD LEAVES FOR ASSEMBLY

Waycross, Ga., July 20.—(Special). Mrs. Vesta Smith Brown, of Waycross, worthy grand matron for Georgia of the Order of the Eastern Star, left Thursday for Denver, Col., where she will attend the assembly of the general grand chapter.

Mrs. Brown expects to be away from Georgia four weeks and during her absence Mrs. Mamie S. Johnson, N. C., to answer to charges of violation of the Harrison narcotic act.

POLICE CHIEF KILLS FLORIDA PRISONER

Everglades, Fla., July 20.—(AP)—W. F. Celon, a prisoner doing 60 days on a forgery sentence, was shot and killed in the Collier county jail today by Police Chief Joe Garrett, of Everglades.

Garrett was called to the jail by Constable John Belcher, who learned, he said, that Celon had made a duplicate key to his cell and was planning an escape.

Garrett told the coroner's jury that when he demanded the key Celon attempted to attack him with a chair, whereupon the officer fired and killed the prisoner. A verdict of justifiable homicide was returned.

Celon, who had only two weeks more of his sentence to serve, succeeded in getting out of his cell with the duplicate key and reached a part of the jail where a quantity of confiscated liquor was stored, Belcher testified. Both officers declared the prisoner was drunk.

Celon was convicted for forging checks on a Miami fish company, by which he had been employed. He said when arrested that he had relatives on a rural route in the vicinity of Gainesville. Their names are not known and the Collier county authorities are holding the body in the hope of hearing from them.

COAL OPERATORS FORMALLY REJECT UNION INVITATION

Cleveland, July 20.—(AP)—The Ohio Coal Operators' association late today formally rejected an invitation of the Ohio district, United Mine Workers of America, for a joint wage conference.

S. H. Robbins, president of the operators' association, in a telegram to Lee Hall, president of the Ohio Miners' union, declared the mines are filled with "competent men who are willing to work," and "are producing all the coal it is found possible to sell."

A party of Knights Templar from the various commanderies of Louisiana, including grand officers of the state, and their families, will be guests today of the Cour de Lion Atlanta commanderies.

The party, consisting of about 90 persons, is returning home from Detroit, where the Louisianians have been attending the grand triennial of Knights Templar.

Entertainment includes a luncheon at the Henry Grady hotel at noon, and sightseeing trips to Stone mountain and other sections during the day.

FOREIGN COUNTRIES ASSIST IN JUNIOR RED CROSS EXHIBIT

Bits of handicraft from countries across the sea have been collected by the Junior Red Cross in an exhibit at the school administration building on Walker street. All of the articles were made by school children of foreign countries, and were sent in exchange for work of the Atlanta school children.

Fine pottery from Belgium, fretwork from Bulgaria, a silk exhibit from Japan, a rug from India, art from Greece and other countries are combined with handicraft from Latvia, Czechoslovakia and many other distant lands. The exhibit will be on display for the rest of the summer.

MAN AND 2 GIRLS INDICTED BY JURY IN ROBBERY CASE

While the two girls implicated remained in Fulton tower, John Sheahan, 21, of Hill street, Friday night made $2,000 bond after the grand jury had indicted the trio for the robbery of R. C. Parker, 522 Simpson street.

The true bill found Friday afternoon charges Nellie Blasingame, 21, and Billie Taylor, 19, both of 365 1-2 Marietta street, and Sheahan with robbery of Parker at $40 at pistol point.

The girls were riding with Parker and asked him to take them by Hunter and Hill streets, where Sheahan appeared with a gun and his accomplice, Parker says. Both young women are in default of $1,000 bonds.

RELATIVES YESTERDAY DRUG THE Ocmulgee river near the station and made a further search in that vicinity today. Briggs' family or business associates could assign no reason for his disappearance. His financial affairs were declared to be in good condition.

SCHOOL COMMITTEES Will Decide on Bids At Meeting Tuesday

The school committee of the board of education and of the bond commission will meet at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the office of G. Lloyd Preacher, architect, to formulate recommendations on the award of contracts for six new school buildings, it was announced Friday.

The contracts for additions to Commercial High, Adair, Forrest Avenue, Goldsmith and Georgia Avenue schools for white children and South Atlanta colored school.

THREE ARE INDICTED IN CASE OF BURGLARY

Dewey Smith, E. B. Shellett and Avery Carroll, two of whom are believed to be under arrest in Birmingham, Friday were indicted jointly for the burglary a few days ago of the Guarantee Gun, Safe & Lock company, on South Forsyth street, near the railroad.

Police say this robbery was one of seven committed recently within a single block on South Forsyth street. Smith and Shellett are being held in the Alabama city, authorities have been advised, while Carroll remains a fugitive.

City detectives will leave today to return the pair for trial, it was announced.

WOMAN CLAIMS SLAYING OF TWO

Norristown, Pa., July 20.—(P)—Dr. Virginia Alvarez Hussey, daughter of a former high Venezuela official, walked into police headquarters here today, handed over a loaded revolver, and sobbed that she had killed her husband, Lindley M. Hussey, a magazine writer, and a woman companion last night.

The doctor, who was formerly an interne at the West Philadelphia hospital for women, said she committed the killing near her home at Parker Ford, six miles from Norristown, Pa. Search is futile.

Police at once began a search for the bodies she described, but found no trace of them along roads near her home nor in surrounding fields and woods.

Dr. Hussey was held in jail and to all questions concerning the disposal of the bodies replied "ask the other woman," or "try and find them."

After police found questioning futile Dr. H. Metz Miller, superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane here, examined her and said she was sane.

Poison Tablets.

Besides the loaded revolver Dr. Hussey surrendered five poison tablets with which she said she planned to commit suicide after the murder. She told police she had lost her nerve.

A letter found in her possession signed "Lindley" was a plea for her to return to her husband.

Dr. Hussey told police that her husband met her while he was traveling in Venezuela getting material for a novel. She said that she shot him and the woman because they were too friendly.

Shoots Man in Back.

"I shot them several times in the back," she told police, "then I reloaded my pistol with five cartridges I had in my bag."

She explained that she had stolen the revolver from a friend in Philadelphia.

Dr. Hussey was graduated from the Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1920. Her father was formerly minister of war of the republic of Venezuela, under Castro. She is two years older, a magazine writer, and author of "Odalisque," a romance with a Venezuela and New York setting.

4 TRAINMEN KILLED IN FREIGHT WRECK

Omaha, July 20.—(P)—Two engineers and two firemen were killed about 2 a. m. today when a double-header Wabash freight train plunged into a rain-swollen dry creek, near Mineola, Iowa, 14 miles east of Council Bluffs. The torrential rains of the night had filled the creek, washing out the central rails of the main line. Six cars of the 54-car train piled up on the creek following the locomotive.

The dead: D. D. Tucker, 44, engineer. George Wilson, 43, engineer. Jesse Davis, 22, fireman. John Butts, 22, fireman.

All of the victims lived at Stannett, Mo.

A switching crew was dispatched to the scene of the wreck after members of the train crew had made their way to Council Bluffs.

Davis has two children and Tucker three.

The rainfall in Omaha was 3.76 inches.

Other members of the crew, Clarence Smith, conductor, and Ralph Humphrey, brakeman, were riding in the caboose and were not hurt.

Bodies of Tucker, Davis and Wilson were recovered when the swollen creek waters receded. The body of Butts could be seen under the cab of his engine. Part of one leg was exposed.

KENTUCKIAN KILLS WIFE AND SONS

Monticello, Ky., July 20.—(P)—A disagreement between a father and two sons cost the lives of the youths and soon after the life of the mother at the home several miles from here yesterday.

The dead are Mrs. Mary Wright, 53; Porter Wright, 24, and Jesse Wright, 20.

Miss Lexie Wright, daughter of the slain woman and the accused, W. R. Wright, who is in jail here, was wounded by two shots from her father's rifle. Two other children had not returned from school at the time of the shooting.

Disagreement arose over the bounty of cedar timber on the farm of Mrs. Victoria Wright, mother of the prisoner, and when his sons disagreed with him, Wright shot them through the head.

Mrs. Wright was near-by in the home; heard the shots and went with her daughter to the scene. They met Wright, who shot his wife through the right lung and wounded his daughter.

Vote null, a neighbor, disarmed Wright soon after the shooting and held him until Sheriff G. P. Tate arrived to take him into custody.

ATLANTA COAST GUARD DIES IN SHIP CRASH

Cape May, N. J., July 20.—(P)—Two coast guardsmen were drowned and five rescued today when the steamship Culbertson, sank coast guard patrol boat No. 113 in a thick fog off the Delaware capes.

The dead are: B. F. Haines, motor machinist's mate, first class, Pleasantville, N. J. D. T. Hale, motor machinist's mate, second class, Atlanta, Ga.

According to the story told by the survivors Delaware bay was covered by a dense fog and the CG-113 was proceeding slowly along on patrol duty. Suddenly out of the murk loomed the high bow of the freighter. It struck the 75-foot government boat square amidships, cutting it in half as though with a giant knife.

The two missing men were in the engine room and are believed to have been rendered unconscious by the force of the impact while the other five were hurled into the sea.

Hale enlisted here September 11, 1926, and his address at that time was 385 Park avenue, Atlanta, according to officers of the coast guard here. When he enlisted he named Mrs. Walter Q. Gresham, of Washington, Ga., a sister, as his only living near relative.

He had lived in Atlanta for about two years previous to his enlistment and had worked as an auto mechanic here.

SCHUMANN-HEINK IS INVITED HERE BY D. A. V. CHAPTER

Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the greatest of the contraltos and the "grand old lady" of opera, has been invited to come to Atlanta next year by the Betty Harrison Jones chapter of the D. A. V.

This action was voted at the regular meeting of the chapter last Monday, after it was disclosed in a recent interview in Kansas City, that the famous singer has agreed to visit the United States next summer, paying all expenses of her trip herself.

From Kansas City the singer sent personal greetings to three members of the local chapter, Howard Glenn, James K. Finch and Frank R. Fling. It is expected that Madame Schumann-Heink will accept the invitation and sing here soon after the first of next February.

LID IS CLAMPED ON NEW ORLEANS GAMBLING CLUBS

New Orleans, July 20.—(P)—In sweeping action against gambling in New Orleans was taken today by Thomas A. Healy, superintendent of police, who issued general orders for the closing of games in all chartered clubs in the city.

Police estimated that the order would affect more than a thousand clubs, chartered under state law, ranging from extensive clubs operating in the business district to the smaller organizations in back rooms of neighborhood groceries and pool rooms.

One of the first clubs to bow to the new rule of the police was the nationally-known Crescent billiard hall, located at Canal and St. Charles streets, operated for years by Oakley Harris, recently slain gambler. The poker tables were closed, but the hall was permitted to remain open for pool and billiard games.

WAYCROSS INFANT MORTALITY R A T E SHOWS BIG DECLINE

Waycross, Ga., July 20.—(Special.) Waycross has reduced its infant mortality rate 31.32 points in one year. This is believed to be a state record.

From January 1 to July 1, 1927, the infant mortality rate was 74.02. During the same period for 1928 the rate was only 42.70.

Court Reaffirms Sentence To Jail Of Dry Leader

Indianapolis, July 20.—(P)—Edward S. Shumaker, superintendent of the Indiana Anti-Saloon league, won and lost a point today in his attempts to escape punishment for alleged contempt of the Indiana supreme court. By an opinion supplementing its original judgment, the court refused to increase the sentence of $250 fine and 60 days at the state penitentiary first imposed on the dry leader, and strongly reaffirmed his conviction for contempt in connection with publication of statements that certain members of the court were prejudiced in deciding liquor appeals.

The motion to increase sentence, as was the original contempt information, was filed by Attorney General Arthur L. Gilliam. After publication of correspondence between Shumaker and Senator James E. Watson, which Gilliam contended, indicated "corrupt attempts by Shumaker to corruptly influence a decision favorable to him," the attorney general asked that the original sentence be increased.

The opinion of the court leaves but one avenue of escape from a penal farm term open to Shumaker—an appeal to the Indiana state supreme court. It is understood that such an appeal will be taken.

ATLANTA NAMED AS COMMITTEEMAN OF DIXIE BOOSTERS

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 20.—(P)—Birmingham was selected as the convention city for the Dixie Boosters, composed of members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and auxiliaries, at the closing meeting here today. W. W. Lane, of Birmingham, was elected president; E. W. Ragin, Memphis, vice chairman; Mrs. Minnie Fry, Chattanooga, secretary-treasurer; executive committee, M. J. Byrne, Nashville, and W. H. Smith, Atlanta. Application from Virginia boosters to join with the Dixie organization was rejected.

SOUTHERN CROSS NAVIGATOR PLANS NEW OCEAN JUMP

Los Angeles, July 20.—(P)—Captain Harry Lyon, navigator of the moonpale Southern Cross on its recent flight from Oakland, Calif., to Australia, made public here today plans for another long flight, from London to Los Angeles, next spring.

Lyon said that the plane will be built here and will be piloted by Captain William Lancaster and Mrs. Keith Miller, who recently flew from England to Hobart, Tasmania. Lyon will be the navigator. Lancaster and Mrs. Keith are here.

It is proposed to make the flight in two hops and in a total elapsed time of 100 hours. The start would be made from Croydon and the first stop would be New York to refuel and rest.

ALLEGED LEADER OF HUGE DRUG RING NABBED AT MIAMI

Miami, Fla., July 20.—(P)—Harry Sherrill, said to be notorious in Tulsa, Okla., as the leader of a big Westing and wanted by federal authorities there, was in the Dade county stockade today in default of $22,500 bond awaiting extradition.

Sherrill fought his removal to Oklahoma at a hearing held before the United States commissioner today upon his arraignment by A. D. Stevenson, narcotic inspector here, and who arrested him at Miami Beach, W. I. Eads and George G. Essner, of Tulsa, were introduced by Stevenson to testify against Sherrill, affirming he had sold them narcotics.

The prisoner has seven indictments against him, Stevenson says. He had also been arrested once during his stay at West Palm Beach on a hijacking charge.

13-YEAR-OLD BOY SAVES FIVE PERSONS FROM DROWNING

St. Louis, July 20.—(P)—Leon Callanan, 13-year-old school boy, was a hero today after he saved five persons from drowning in a slough in the Mississippi river last night. The lives of two children were claimed by the slough, however.

Several families were enjoying an outing on the banks of the slough. It was decided to go swimming and Roy Helman, 8, and Effie Lee Anderson, 9, wading to the center of the slough, suddenly sank from sight in 30 feet of water. Both were drowned.

Mrs. Delphine Anderson, mother of the girl, tried vainly to rescue her daughter and was herself saved by young Callanan, who dragged her to shore. Leon then brought to safety Margaret and Flora Helman, who had attempted to rescue their brother Roy. Bertha Anderson, 11, and Fay Anderson, 6, sister of Effie, had in the meantime become involved in deep water and the youth towed them to shallow water.

All but Leon Callanan were inexperienced swimmers. The lad, who is skillful in the water, was said to have saved a 12-year-old boy from drowning last summer.

LIGHTED MATCH MENACES ENTIRE TOWN OF CAMILLA

Camilla, Ga., July 20.—(P)—A motorist who stopped at a filling station here today for gasoline threw a lighted match starting a fire which threatened the business district of Camilla. Calls for assistance were sent to Albany and Pelham, but the blaze was under control when trucks from those cities arrived. The Star garage was destroyed.

NEW YORK WOMAN BEQUEATHS $ U M TO BERRY SCHOOL

New York, July 20.—(P)—The Berry school of Mount Berry, Ga., received a $1,500 bequest from the estate of Mary A. Sherell, of Bedford, N. Y., who died April 18 last year, a last year's tax appraisal filed today revealed.

Smoking by Wife Not Law Question, Judge Tells Hubby

Springfield, Mass., July 20.—There's a single standard in the matter of smoking. The question whether a wife's puffs are irrelevant in litigation with her husband, "I've seen too many nice women smoke," Judge Charles L. Long explained.

CORRA HARRIS COMES TO ATLANTA TO SHOP

There are several "Corra Harrises" who have a trick of claiming to be the Corra Harris, the Georgia woman who wrote "A Circuit Rider's Wife," and more than a score of other books. These pseudo Corra Harrises turn up in all sorts of places and always claim to have written the real Corra Harris' books.

The real Corra Harris was in Atlanta, Friday, at the Georgian Terrace hotel. She comes down from her home in Cartersville, she said, every five years or so, to "buy a frock." The smartness of her appearance contradicts her words.

"I don't object so much to the distant Corra Harrises, so long as they stay distant," she said. "Not when they stay in Havana, or St. Petersburg, or Virginia or Louisiana, or somewhere. But when they come to Atlanta and claim to be me, they're coming to my home and I wish the paper would print a description of the Corra Harris of the moment."

Thereupon she furnished the description: "An elderly lady, inclined to be a trifle spherical, with a good old face if, perhaps, a sardonic eye."

Mrs. Harris is again writing, she said, but isn't very sure about the quality of her work. "I never submit an article for publication without fear and humility," she said.

Mrs. Harris seems to be in better health than she was on her last visit, several months ago. And she talked about happiness. "It isn't what I once thought it was," she said. "It isn't some emotional exaltation. Happiness is a state of mind, a gentle and kindly adjustment to men and things and the weather."

STEPHENSON LOSES PLEA FOR REHEARING

Indianapolis, July 20.—(P)—One of the legal doors through which D. C. Stephenson has sought to be released from the Indiana state prison was closed today when the Indiana supreme court denied his petition for a rehearing in a habeas corpus action against the warden and trustees of the institution.

The former grand dragon of the Indiana Ku Klux Klan, serving a life term for murder of an Indianapolis girl, still has one hope pending before the supreme court, however. This is his appeal from his original conviction at Noblesville, Ind., in November, 1925, in the Hamilton court circuit court.

Ever since he was placed in prison Stephenson has contended that he is a political prisoner, and has alleged ill treatment at the hands of the prison authorities.

One of his complaints is that he had not been allowed to hold private conferences with his attorneys. A few days ago Stephenson filed a mandamus action against prison officials asking that they be directed to permit such conferences. Arguments on a demurrer to the action filed by Attorney General L. G. Gillette will be heard in the La Porte circuit court Monday.

CHIEF RESTRICTS USE OF REPORTS ON AUTO CRASHES

As a move against the idly curious and against "ambulance chasing" lawyers, Chief of Police James L. Beavers Friday ordered that the accident reports at police headquarters be kept locked up in the captain's office and that only those with legitimate reasons for examining them be given access to the files.

The chief explained that the captain's secretary will be in charge of the records, and that anyone needing to see any particular report will be allowed to see it by exchanging a card with the secretary.

Lawyers who are on cases and need specific information will be allowed to use the official reports, but lawyers who have made a practice of looking over the reports to locate prospective clients will no longer be allowed to do so, he explained.

TWO MEN ARE HELD AS RESULT OF FIGHT

Martin Hightower, address unknown, and Paul V. Wood, of a local hotel, were being held at police headquarters on suspicion late Friday night, following a fight which occurred at about 5 o'clock Friday afternoon at 200 Forrest avenue, in which both men were slightly injured, police reports show.

Call Officers Brackett and Ector were called to the Forrest avenue address by neighbors who said that a number of shots had been fired. Arriving at the house the officers arrested the men, but a search of the premises failed to reveal any guns or other weapons. Both men were cut about the head, apparently from blows from the fists, and were treated before being locked up. Both steadfastly refused to make any statement about the matter.

DRY LAW FUTILE, RASKOB ASSERTS

New York, July 20.—(AP)—John J. Raskob, chairman of the democratic national committee, said at a press conference today that he believed the thinking people of the country should try to work out some scheme "for the restoration of temperate life in America."

He said he had no definite plan in mind and the national committee had no idea of evolving any.

"I don't think that any part of our work in this campaign," he said, "but I sincerely believe that such a plan should be evolved and that it should be adopted only after the most careful consideration so that it would be acceptable to everyone and could thus be made workable."

Sees Liquor as Issue.

He expressed the opinion that prohibition is one of several issues rather than the sole vital issue of the campaign but added that the issues would have to be defined by the candidates and not by the committee.

"Do you think the majority of the people in the country are wet?" he was asked.

"I don't know," he replied. "It's difficult to classify people as wet or dry. For instance, I'd hate to see people refer to me as a winging wet."

Confers With Leaders.

Raskob spent most of the day in conference with democratic leaders deciding on organization of the campaign forces and saw reporters just before starting on a week-end vacation at his home in Maryland. He said it had been decided to have two committees, an advisory one headed by Senator Peter Gerry, of Rhode Island, and an executive committee, headed by himself, to carry out the recommendations of the larger committee if they were approved.

The persons on the traffic committee was announced as follows:

Advisory: Senator Gerry, chairman; Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York; Parker Corning, of Albany; Pat Harrison, of Mississippi; Bruce Kremer, of Montana; William E. Oldfield, of Arkansas; Jonett Shouse, of Kansas; Mildred E. Tiddings, of Maryland, and John J. Raskob, ex-officio.

Executive: Raskob, chairman; Senator Gerry, James J. Joy, Herbert H. Lehman, Mrs. Henry Moskowitz, Franklin D. Roosevelt, George R. Van Name.

Survey Planned.

The advisory committee will direct a survey of political conditions in each state and advise on the proper course of the campaign to meet local conditions.

In making public the personnel of the two committees, Raskob also announced the establishment of two regional headquarters, one at St. Louis, in charge of Senator Harry Hawes, of Missouri, and one at Salt Lake City in charge of Fred W. Johnson, of Rock Springs, Wyo.

UNMASKED BANDIT FUTILELY PURSUED BY BANK MANAGER

Oakland, Cal., July 20.—(AP)—An unmasked man, who appeared to witnesses to be under the influence of a narcotic, held up the Broadway branch of the American Trust company today and escaped in an automobile with $3,482.

G. E. Wilson, manager of the bank, commanded a car occupied by a man and a woman and pursued the robber but was outdistanced. A passerby saw Wilson stop the second car and, believing the bank manager was the holdup man, was responsible for a report that the robber had kidnapped a man and a woman in making his escape.

TWO BOYS KILLED WHEN LIGHTNING HITS PUBLIC DOCK

Lavallette, N. J., July 20.—(AP)—Two boys were killed, a girl was injured critically, and a number of other girls were stunned by a bolt of lightning which came with a brief rain storm here late today. One girl was hurled into the water from the public dock on which she and others were sitting and four were rendered unconscious while they were bathing in the surf, and would have been swept out to sea but for the efforts of two men.

ITALIA SURVIVORS PLAN RETURN HOME

Oso, July 20.—(AP)—The Italian minister to Norway, replying to a question regarding the Italian expedition, said today that General Umberto Nobile and the other survivors of the Italia would return to Italy through Stockholm and central Europe.

The minister could not say whether an official inquiry would be opened on the expedition but thought it most likely that the general would be required to furnish a very detailed report.

Questioned whether Italy had a law dealing with situations of this nature, the minister said that Italian law provided for all sorts of accidents, even those during arctic trips.

The suggestion that Premier Mussolini was in any way responsible for the Italia's expedition was rejected by the minister, who said that the project was purely of a private character, organized and financed by the city of Milan. Premier Mussolini, he said, never gave any order that the Italia flag be dropped on the pole on May 25 in celebration of Italy's entry into the world war nor had any orders been given regarding the conditions under which the expedition was to operate.

This statement was in answer to questions regarding dispatches that the Italia had made the trip to the pole despite unfavorable weather conditions in order to reach it on the anniversary date.

In submitting to today's interview, the Italian minister laid aside the usual rule of diplomacy regarding press interviews.

ALL ITALIA SURVIVORS SAFE AT KING'S BAY.

King, July 20.—(AP)—All the known survivors of the fatal expedition which set forth almost two months ago for the north pole in the dirigible Italia were safe in this harbor today.

Cheers from the base ship Citta Di Milano welcomed the Russian icebreaker Krassin as that sturdy vessel came into port with the seven members of the Italia crew who had been snatched from death in the arctic. The men, including Nobile, Cecconi, whose leg was broken in the crash of the Italia on May 25, and Captain Alberto Maritano, who was picked up with a badly frostbitten leg and in an exhausted condition, were transferred to the Citta di Milano.

General Umberto Nobile, leader of the ill-fated expedition, was rescued by airplane on June 24, awaited them aboard his base ship. Buried in the polar ice cap they left Vincenzo Pomella, killed in the crash. Dr. Finn Malmgren was left behind a month ago dying in a grave near the base. Captain Maritano and Zoppi when they pushed on in a futile attempt to reach land. Six men were carried off in the balloon part of the dirigible were still in presence. Were Roald Amundsen and five others who flew to rescue them.

LAST OF POWERS INDORSE U. S. PLAN

BY LEE GEBHART.

Washington, July 20.—(United News)—Secretary of State Kellogg realized his hope of handing leading world powers for renunciation of war today when Japan and Czechoslovakia—last of the 14 nations invited to become parties to the multilateral anti-war treaty—announced their willingness to sign.

This move for world peace by outlawing war—hailed as a milestone in international agreements—will become a reality on or about August 28 in Paris, when representatives of the interested nations affix their signatures to the document.

British Reply Published.

The possibility that it will become a world-wide pact gained added impetus with publication today of the British acceptance reply, suggesting the United States extend a general invitation to all countries wishing to join in the treaty.

Nations which have announced they are ready to sign are Germany, France, Great Britain, Italy, Belgium, Irish Free State, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India, Poland, Japan and Czechoslovakia, in addition to the United States.

Thus, with the leading powers agreeing practically without reservation to the Kellogg proposal, it is expected that if the American secretary of state should follow the British suggestion of announcing general invitation to other countries to join, they would be desirous of quickly falling in line.

Germany was the first of the invited nations to notify the United States of its acceptance without reservation of the American treaty draft. The others followed rapidly. Japan's note of acceptance was made public today by the state department. Czechoslovakia announced today at Prague its willingness to sign, and the formal note of acceptance is expected here within the next two days.

Heron Gichi Tanaka, Japanese minister of foreign affairs, in his note to the state department today, said: "I cannot conclude without congratulating the United States for its initiative upon the rapid and general acceptance which their proposals have met with. The imperial government are proud to be among the first to be associated with a movement so plainly in union with the hopes everywhere entertained, and confidently concur with the high possibilities of the acceptance of this simple and magnanimous treaty by the whole civilized world."

May Extend Invitation.

Minister Tanaka's suggestion of the hope the treaty might be accepted "by the whole civilized world" following so close that of British Foreign Minister Chamberlain, is expected to give further support to the move for a world-wide invitation to join in signing the pact.

Kellogg may extend the invitation from Washington, although it is probable that inasmuch as the treaty is to be signed in Paris, France thereby becoming the repository for that treaty, the French government will extend the formal invitation.

JAPAN 'OMINATES CHARLES A. HUGHES TO WORLD COURT

Geneva, Switzerland, July 20.—(AP)—The name of Charles Evans Hughes as first choice nominee for the vacant post on the world court caused by the resignation of John Bassett Moore was formally presented by Japan today. Dr. Walter Simmonds, of Germany, was named as second choice.

In presenting these two names, Japan followed the same course as Great Britain and France.

Wisconsin 'Auction Girl' Dismounts From Block

PARANTS ESTRANGED, SHE CALLS OFF HER OFFER

Milwaukee, July 20.—(AP)—Her parents estranged, perhaps permanently, through her efforts to provide for them in comfort for the rest of their lives, Beatrice Albert, known as the "Auction Girl," has decided to dismount from the "block."

"I have definitely decided to withdraw my offer to marry anyone who would give my parents $50,000 for their maintenance the rest of their lives," she said today, "because as a result of my first bargain my father and mother are separated, perhaps forever."

Miss Albert, the 19-year-old Sioux, Wis., girl who created a sensation six months ago by offering herself as the wife of the highest bidder, said last week that she would go on a stock, a hamlet in northern Wisconsin, and there meet three suitors.

Today, however, in Milwaukee, where she had lived since her flight from two months ago, she said she had changed her mind.

"My parents' happiness," she said sorrowfully, "cannot be obtained with money alone. Back in their two-room frame farm house in Sioux they were happier than they are now in comparative luxury."

Her father, feeling that Miss Albert should marry Mr. Goyne, with whom the family has lived for three months, refused to leave Milwaukee and Mr. Goyne's house when his daughter went to court to seek a husband. The two are, on the best of terms, are planning a fishing trip together. Mr. Albert is adamant and declares he will have nothing to do with his daughter unless she "does the honorable thing" and marries Mr. Goyne.

Her mother, on the other hand, just as set against Mr. Goyne as her father is for him, refuses to allow her to reconsider the offer of the likely postmaster.

"And what shall I do?" the girl demanded today. "How can I undo the trouble I have caused?"

"I know now that happiness is not found through money, and even if I should be able to shower my parents with luxuries, I could never make them as happy as they were back in their little farm home."

"My father tells me the only honorable thing for me to do is to marry Mr. Goyne. My mother says if I marry him she shall go away."

"So I have decided that love and love only shall be the consideration if I ever marry."

Called 'Bum' Beggar Boasts Bank Balance

New York, July 20.—(AP)—Arrested for soliciting alms from women on Fifth street, Daniel Sugrue, 65 years old, showed his resentment to being called a "bum" by boasting in court that he had $20,000 in the bank.

He was sentenced by Magistrate Simpson to the workhouse for six months, police found $170 on his person.

FATAL PRISON BREAK AIDED BY OUTSIDERS

New York, July 20.—(AP)—The two guns used by John J. McCabe, 25, in his futile attempt to escape from the Bronx jail today were passed to him on a bamboo pole from the outside through his cell window, authorities learned. McCabe killed himself when his break for freedom was blocked by a steel door.

Search of his cell disclosed that window netting had been torn away and replaced with blackened string. In the nine-story building next door and of New York City, N. J., opposite McCabe's cell, authorities found two bamboo poles in a deserted office. The buildings are about 15 feet apart.

A woman, friend of the dead prisoner, and a brother, Edward McCabe, are being sought. The brother, according to authorities, was the last visitor to McCabe's cell. The brother, it was learned, has not been home since Sunday.

Search of his cell disclosed that window netting had been torn away and replaced with blackened string. In the nine-story building next door and of New York City, N. J., opposite McCabe's cell, authorities found two bamboo poles in a deserted office. The buildings are about 15 feet apart.

CARGO OF PRE-WAR WHISKY SEIZED ON LINER NERISSA

New York, July 20.—(AP)—A cargo of alleged pre-war rye whisky, estimated to be worth $50,000 at retail, was seized today by customs agents on the Red Cross liner Nerissa. The contraband was in kegs under pickled herring which had been brought in large barrels from Halifax, N. S. The Nerissa docked in Brooklyn yesterday.

An agent of the appraisers' stores was checking cargo to be delivered to truckmen late last night when he found a ten-gallon keg of whisky at the bottom of the first barrel of herring he examined. A hurried search showed that a similar keg was apparently at the bottom of each of the 501 fish barrels.

Smith and Anderson, Manhattan fish dealers, were the consignees of the fish and said they received shipment regularly from Halifax.

The Nerissa plies between New York, Halifax and St. Johns, N. F.

PATRICIDE'S LIFE TERM IS APPROVED BY FLORIDA COURT

Tallahassee, Fla., July 20.—(AP)—A life sentence in the state penitentiary given Johnnie Branch, alias Bud Branch, in Orange county, for the slaying of his father, was upheld today by the state supreme court.

The opinion of the supreme court by Chief Justice William H. Ellis, declared that "the evidence raises no grave doubt as to the defendant's guilt," and that the rule should not be relaxed.

Mayor James Walker Answers Criticisms Of His Administration

San Francisco, July 20.—(AP)—Mayor James Walker, of New York, who arrived here yesterday charged with "ridiculous" criticism of New York socialists who have asked investigation of his administration.

"Their charges are ridiculous," the mayor said. "I will answer them categorically at the proper time. Meanwhile, I will welcome an investigation, not only by Governor Smith, as they suggest, but also by the republican legislature of New York, the same legislature that threw out a number of duly elected socialists."

"All I can say is that their allegations betray a woeful lack of familiarity with the machinery of government and a mighty small idea of the dignity of the city of New York."

"Municipal misrule and political corruption" was charged against Mayor Walker by the executive committee of the socialist party in a petition Tuesday to Governor Smith. Eleven specific accusations, ranging from alleged graft in sewer construction to exorbitant entertaining of distinguished guests, were made.

Madison, Wis., July 20.—(AP)—Legislative power of the state is to be delegated to boards, commissioners or individual state officers in Wisconsin, the state supreme court was held.

An opinion handed down yesterday, said by the attorney general's office to be the first to that effect in the United States, upheld the constitutionality of the state insurance rating law and the powers it conferred upon the insurance commissioners.

The high court upheld the commissioner's right to accept or overrule the Wisconsin inspection bureau, quasi official organization set up by insurance companies operating in Wisconsin with leave of the state for the establishment of rating on property for fire and tornado insurance policies, and rules under which the insurance could remain in effect.

Franklin E. Bump, deputy attorney general, said it was the first time a state supreme court in the United States has held that legislative power may be delegated to a board, commission or individual state officers. Previously state courts have gone only so far as to hold that legislative authority may be so delegated as "fact-finding bodies."

COUPLE IS HELD IN BOMB DEATH

Rockford, Ill., July 20.—(AP)—A bomb, an electrical current and an automobile combined to dissolve a domestic triangle through the death of the husband, but found the wife and her alleged suitor in jail today held in connection with the slaying.

Veron Plager, 32, Rockford radio expert, was the victim of a bomb wired in his automobile so as to explode when he stepped on the starter yesterday. He was thrown into the air, struck an overhead cable and died within 30 minutes.

"Paul Reed did it," he whispered on his death bed.

Reed, 30, a draftsman, surrendered at Oregon, Ill., late last night, maintaining his innocence.

Mrs. Plager, 22, mother of a 5-year-old daughter, also held by police, supported her husband's accusation against Reed.

Last year, police said, Mrs. Plager and Reed ran away to a southern Illinois city, where they were arrested and returned. In police court they were fined and a reconciliation followed between husband and wife for the sake of their child.

Last Wednesday, the widow told police, Reed again asked her to elope with him.

"I can't live without you," she quoted him as saying. "Every time I see you with your husband it makes me furious."

The widow said she ordered Reed to leave her and never return.

Reed, questioned for hours early today, attempted to establish an alibi. He said police had been at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. Garrison, at Mt. Morris, Ill., about 40 miles from here.

Charges have been preferred against either the man or woman, but Karl Williams, assistant state's attorney, today indicated they would be held for further investigation.

COAST GUARD SEIZES BIG CARGO OF LIQUOR

Wilmington, N. C., July 20.—(AP)—Fine liquors valued at between $38,000 and $50,000 at prevailing bootleg prices, were confiscated last night at Woodside, near Topsail inlet, by coast guardmen from the cutter Albatross, they said here today.

George Walters, Philadelphia, was arrested. Included in the seizure were 288 cases and 215 sacks of liquor, 40 barrels of malt and one case of champagne.

An automobile and a 40-foot houseboat also were seized.

A party of four men under command of Ensign Ruyward made the seizure about 1 o'clock this morning.

The liquor was being placed in the ends of a freight car with potatoes stacked near the door. It was addressed to the Anastasia Potato company, of Jersey City, N. J.

Walters said that he was employed by James Harden, a vegetable dealer of New Jersey. Harden, who is understood to be in this locality, is being sought by officers.

When arrested in Birmingham at the time, Poyles told officers he thought Lewis was going to arrest him for a robbery he had committed.

REAL FIGHT FOR SOUTH INDICATED BY G. O. P.

Washington, July 20.—(United News).—Indications that the republicans will make a special appeal in the south were seen by some today in the announcement by the republican national committee that C. Blasco Slemph, of Virginia, had joined the staff of National Chairman Work.

This announcement followed within 24 hours the action of the anti-Smith dry conference at Asheville in urging dry democrats to scratch their presidential nominee and vote for Hoover.

Work was vague as to what Slemph's duties will be, but in view of his record as an active republican worker in the south, it was assumed he would be active in that field again. Work said he did not know whether Slemph would cooperate with Bishop Cannon and Dr. A. J. Barton, leaders of the anti-Smith dry conference. He said no consideration had been given to whether there should be a heavy campaign in the south. However, it is known that some of those attached to national headquarters have been assigned particularly to southern work. Slemph was secretary to President Coolidge for a time and was active in organizing southern delegates for him in 1924.

if you believe in the theory of fresh foods for health

USE ICE

In one of his weekly bulletins, Dr. Bundeson, Commissioner of Public Health of Chicago, gives this advice:

"Eat moderately, taking meat once a day, and plenty of fresh vegetables, fruits and milk."

Fresh foods contain health-giving vitamins that are lacking in others. Therefore heed not the dangerous advice of those who encourage keeping foods for longer than a few days.

The convenient, economical, common sense way is to continue the use of "real" ice—pure and sparkling clear ice—the year 'round. Keep your fresh foods and milk at their best with a good refrigerator and dependable ice service.

Let low-cost ice save your high-cost food.

The Taming of Elizabeth

By WINIFRED BOGGS

SYNOPSIS.

The young Elizabeth is the adored daughter of Tim and Elizabeth Darcy. When she is four years old she runs away from home to avoid punishment for getting into mischief. She is brought home promptly by a neighbor, Miss Smiley.

At twelve Elizabeth runs away again, this time from school, and to the home of her Aunt Dolly in London. Dolly, who is almost as flighty as the young Elizabeth, sympathizes with her niece, much to the irritation of her stepson, Stephen Waddy.

After the death of her parents Elizabeth goes to live with her aunt. During the war they keep themselves busy and also amused by performing in amateur theatricals for the benefit of wounded soldiers.

Stephen, home on leave, is asked by his stepmother to bring Mark Lennox, a young playwright, to one of their performances. Shortly after the end of the war Mrs. Waddy dies suddenly in Brighton, and Elizabeth learns to her consternation that her aunt had frittered away the money left her by her husband, and had also disposed of some of Stephen's inheritance as well. Afraid to face Stephen after this revelation, Elizabeth decides to go to Mark Lennox in London and ask him to get her a job on the stage. Stephen finds her with Mark and, although his business has failed, he offers to help her. She refuses his help and advice, and takes a part in Mark's new play. On the opening night she gets stage fright and runs off, leaving an understudy to take over her part. Miss Smiley, who happens to be in London visiting her cousin, Mrs. White, sees Elizabeth on the street and takes her to Mrs. White's house. The latter offers her a job as cook and Elizabeth accepts.

INSTALLMENT XVIII.
ANOTHER FIASCO.

Miss Smiley insisted that Stephen should be written to and at once.

"O, very well," said Elizabeth, and taking up a pen dashed off:

"Dear Stephen: I have decided to give up being an actress. I am now earning my living in another capacity, and very happy and successful."

"ELIZABETH."

This before she had as much as entered the kitchen!

She would wait till she saw the papers to write to poor, dear, wronged Mark Lennox. She had ruined his play and spoiled his career; without her both were doomed to failure. How was she ever going to bear it? But she would write after breakfast.

There was, however, no breakfast. To begin with, Elizabeth waiting to be awakened by an early cup of tea, slept on till after 10 o'clock. She came down to find Mrs. White and Miss Smiley arguing heatedly over the gas stove. One was saying the eggs should be put in cold water and brought to the boil, the other insisted upon them being put at once into boiling water. Both appealed to Elizabeth, who put up a big bluff.

"O, that's all right, if you'll lay the table and leave the rest to me," she commanded, and the moment she was alone grabbed the cookery book and looked up eggs. There were a thousand ways of doing eggs: nothing as simple as boiling was as much as mentioned, nor whether one boiled them for hours or minutes. She popped them in and decided to chance it. She took them out when they looked done, poured the egg water over the tea leaves in the teapot, and brought them into the room.

The eggs were boiled to perfection, and the two ladies were far too eager for their tea to be overcritical; it tasted extremely well to them.

A charwoman came in from 10 to 12, and Elizabeth sat down with the papers. They were at once a relief and a shock to her. It was splendid that Mr. Lennox had succeeded so magnificently, a little less splendid that the understudy, like fiction, should have proved in every way so much more successful than her superior. Such a plain little thing, shabby and dowdy and rather shrinking . . . only there had always been those queer eyes which one saw when one forgot all the rest. And she was a genius, it seemed, a new star . . .

The letter she wrote to Mark was longer than Stephen's.

"Dear Mr. Lennox: I simply can't tell you how ashamed I am. Of course, I had to run away. I could never look you in the face again. I am with friends, and happy, but I'd rather not say where just yet. O, Mr. Lennox, I'm afraid I'm not awfully good as an actress, it came over me suddenly, I wasn't when the curtain went up. You see that other time it was real sulks. Of course, that pig Stephen knew that. And I couldn't—who could—even begin to feel in love with the Pig? If you see Mr. Keen will you tell him I'm away for a bit? He asked me to have lunch today and a run in his car. He's such a perfectly sweet old gentleman, and I'm sure I shall miss him quite a lot. It was almost like having a grandfather of one's very own, which I never had. And if you see Stephen and he's in one of his superior 'I told you so' moods about me, which he is sure to be, tell him I can look after myself, thank you, and there are lots of things in the world for a girl to do without being an actress, and that I'm doing splendidly in this one."

ELIZABETH.

She laid down the pen and her face fell. Where were Stephen's two thousand pounds coming from now? She was determined not to see him till she had paid back some of it.

She finished her letter to Mark, then she sent off a few warm words of congratulation to the little understudy and posted on the lovely dress bought for the first net.

Miss Smiley came in just as she was signing her name. "The charwoman has gone," she said in her fussy, important way. "The kitchen is ready for you now."

Elizabeth could truthfully have reported that she was not ready for the kitchen, but she jumped up at once. "The chops have just come. We thought it best to start with something really simple late, but the covers were eventually lifted to reveal some cinderlike morsels. 'That's what they went and did to themselves. Isn't it tiresome?' asked Elizabeth, demanding sympathy.

Mrs. White, eyeing Elizabeth's first essay with a pale and dreadful smile, said: "I suppose you mean the chops of a Christian martyr and immediately afterwards disappeared into the store room, came out looking decidedly comforted."

There were rich bought cakes for tea, and the three women sat over the fire devouring them in quantities while Elizabeth told stories of her Bohemian. Tea was a great success, and the cousins were more like friends than relations and combined to make a great fuss of pretty Elizabeth.

At 6 Mrs. White gave a little start. "Good gracious, here we are keeping Elizabeth from cooking the dinner!"

It was to be roast duckling following a steamed sole; a rich trifle, and a tasty savoury ended it. However, housekeepers suppose and cooks dispose, and though Elizabeth put them all in the oven and sat outside till it was dinner time in by some disreputable drunken creature without any reference who would drink everything in the house and steal all she could lay her hands on.

She found the cook of her dreams with references that brought tears of joy to her eyes. It was too good to be true; she would wake up presently.

After a lunch fit for a king she kissed Elizabeth, called her a wonderful girl, and asked her if she had any money.

"Not much," confessed Elizabeth.

Mrs. White pressed two pounds in her hand. "Don't tell Clara," she said. "Clara's just a fool."

Mrs. Smiley returned from dinner; she was tired and actually hungry, and even she realized she was eating a meal that was the most excellent of fuel. "Now Emma will be good tempered and livable with. These people and their gods!" She drew Elizabeth aside. "Have you any money, dear?"

"Well . . . how could I have!" returned Elizabeth, mindful of the other's command.

"Then take this," Miss Smiley pressed two pounds into her hand, "but don't tell Emma, child. Emma is such a fool."

"How funny relations are!" thought Elizabeth to herself. "Perhaps after all it's just as well I haven't any."

Continued Monday.

"Dear Mr. Lennox: I simply can't tell you how ashamed I am. Of course, I had to run away. I could never look you in the face again. I am with friends, and happy, but I'd rather not say where just yet. O, Mr. Lennox, I'm afraid I'm not awfully good as an actress, it came over me suddenly, I wasn't when the curtain went up. shippers in southern territory were held by the interstate commerce commission today to be entitled to control the compression of cotton in transit. Railroads were notified that they should withdraw all existing rules and regulations "in so far as shippers are thereby deprived of control over the compression of cotton."

While no definite orders were laid down to govern future procedure in the matter, the commission added that "we are of the opinion that while compression and concentration of cotton should take place in the area of production, ordinarily reasonable latitude should be allowed with respect to the number of points at which transit is authorized." It was also added that "arrangements such as existing at Atlanta, by which transit is made contingent upon the cotton being compressed before reaching the transit point and with the option to compress or not fairly with the carrier, are, in our opinion, improper and unlawful."

The finding resulted after an investigation made upon complaint brought by the Augusta Cotton Exchange, the Atlanta Cotton association and others. No other amendments to existing regulations were recommended.

street's tomorrow will say:

"The more cheerful tone of advice as to retail trade and crops, noted last week, seemed to have been repeated. High temperatures have been favorable alike to distribution of light summer wear and to growth or harvesting of crops. In the case of retail trade, clearance sales have been an added stimulus, and while wholesale trade still tends to lag, there is evidence that buying for fall has been stimulated by the improved reports from the crops, especially corn, which seems certain to show a larger yield than a year ago. Weather conditions have favored the continued harvesting and marketing of wheat in the southwest and midwest, and this has resulted in a call for increased supplies of money in those areas."

Reports from the industries which are cheerful as regards iron and steel and automobiles, and a sludge better as regards shoe and furniture manufacturing. Reports from the cotton manufacturing industry are that June consumption of the smallest in nearly two years.

prices were allowed to slide today. Brokers evidently were disappointed in the unexpectedly small reduction in brokers' loans and a slight easing of the rate on time money, for which there was little demand, had little effect.

Week-end liquidation also tended to force prices downward, while the continued uncertainty of the credit situation, as well as the intense heat, evidently kept potential buyers out of the market. The volume of sales barely exceeded $7,000,000.

WEEK-END PROFIT-TAKING BRINGS PRICE DECLINES ON CURB MART

Aluminum Down 18 Points In Dull Trading Session

Spanish and General again touched new highs, the former closing at the peak.

New York, July 20.—(P)—Price movements were irregular on the curb market today. Easing call money money rates failed to encourage and buying on a wide scale. Week-end profit-taking caused some declines late in the session. The market was covered by the disappointing report on brokers' loans.

Aluminum, down 18 points, and Banfield, Dominion Stores, Fedders Manufacturing, A. Industrial Rayon, Zenith Radio and Sparks Withington, with losses of 1 to 9 points, were among the weak issues.

prices were allowed to slide today. Brokers evidently were disappointed in the unexpectedly small reduction in brokers' loans and a slight easing of the rate on time money, for which there was little demand, had little effect.

Week-end liquidation also tended to force prices downward, while the continued uncertainty of the credit situation, as well as the intense heat, evidently kept potential buyers out of the market. The volume of sales barely exceeded $7,000,000.

Rails Under Pressure.

The Associated Press combined average of 21 rails, 10 public utilities.

HOOVER IS GIVEN QUIET WELCOME

Palo Alto, Calif., July 20.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover, the first resident of the Pacific coast to carry the standard of a great political party, returned to his beloved California today to receive formal notification of his selection as the republican presidential candidate.

It was a quiet homecoming, the death of Mrs. Hoover's father, C. D. Henry, wealthy banker, having made necessary the cancelling of the celebrations which the people of San Francisco and Palo Alto, the university town, had planned in his honor. Within a few hours after they reached their home on the rolling hills overlooking the Leland Stanford campus, Mr. and Mrs. Hoover attended the funeral services for Mr. Henry at Stanford chapel. These were conducted by Dr. A. T. Murray, a Quaker elder, in the presence of only the family and immediate friends.

Body Cremated. After the services the body was taken to Cypress Lawn cemetery, far out from Palo Alto, for cremation, in accordance with a request made by the aged banker just before his death at a sanitarium near Placerville, Calif., last Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover were met at the Palo Alto station by Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford university, and escorted to Stanford by motorcycle police.

Mrs. Hoover, who was dressed in black, held to her husband's arm during the short walk to the automobile. They faced a battery of cameras on the way and also during the ride to their home, but the picture men were barred from the university grounds during the funeral services.

Met by Sister. On arriving home Mrs. Hoover was met by her sister, Mrs. Jean Henry Large, and soon afterward she went to her father's old room to look upon his face for the last time. Later the casket was moved to the chapel, where the services were held at 2 p. m. Immediately after the services Mr. and Mrs. Hoover returned home to spend a quiet week-end with their son, Alan, and Mrs. Large. The candidate denied himself to political leaders but early next week he will begin a series of conferences with those from the west coast states. Among the first he will see will be Governor C. C. Young and Senator Hiram Johnson, of California.

One Welcome Sign. When the Hoover special reached the Palo Alto station, only a single banner, bearing the inscription "Welcome Home, Hoover," remained of the elaborate decorations which had been put up all over the town. At the request of the nominee these decorations were removed two days ago and there was no demonstration at the station.

Although authorities had asked the town folk to remain away from the station a small crowd was on hand and those composing it stood at respectful attention. Both Palo Alto and San Francisco will formally welcome California's distinguished son as will the city of Los Angeles when he starts back to the east, several days after his notification, August 11. The notification address will be the only official speech Mr. Hoover will deliver on the west coast during this trip, it was stated. He probably will speak briefly both at the San Francisco and Los Angeles welcome celebrations, but he will reserve his second political address for his visit to the high seas. A postal inspector made a round trip on the Leviathan to solve the mystery.

THEFT ON LEVIATHAN IS BELIEVED SOLVED

New York, July 20.—(AP)—Postal inspectors believe they have solved the mystery of the mail robbery on the United States liner Leviathan a month ago with the arrest today of one of the crew. The value of the stolen mail was estimated at $10,000.

Archibald Chapman, 32, of London, assistant linen keeper, was held in $7,500 bail for a hearing on August 9. He had served six months in England for failing to return a valuable ring lost by a passenger on the liner Olympic.

Chapman's work on the ship was near the mail room. Postal inspectors said they found in his room a bunch of 20 keys, one of which was filled down so that it would fit the lock of the mail compartment. Although officials of the line had said that the robbery was committed at a European dock, the complaint today charged that it was committed on the high seas. A postal inspector made a round trip on the Leviathan to solve the mystery.

APARTMENT HOUSE BURGLAR ROUTED BY WOMAN'S CRIES

The screams of Mrs. E. B. Clarke, of 705 Piedmont avenue, prevented a burglar who entered her apartment about 3:30 o'clock Friday night. Mrs. Clarke told police that she was lying down on the sleeping porch of her apartment, on the third floor of the building, when the man entered the door. Marion White, young son of the negro janitor of the apartment house, heard her cries and ran up to her rooms. As the young negro entered the intruder struck the youth to the ground, ran from the apartment and drove away in his waiting car.

GIRL CAMPERS FIND FRIED RATTLESNAKE IS GOOD EATING

State College, Pa., July 20.—The evidence is that fried rattlesnake is delicious. A college statement notes that some girl campers liked it so well they ate it four times in three weeks. The only thing necessary for full enjoyment is to forget what you are eating.

MRS. LOUISE ECHOLS LAID TO FINAL REST

Summerville, Ga., July 20.—(Special)—Mrs. Louise Echols, 86, who died Tuesday at the family home near Perennial Springs, six miles southwest of this place, was buried Wednesday in the Perennial Springs cemetery.

Mrs. Echols is survived by five children, Hugh, John and Frank Echols, Mrs. W. K. Beavers and Miss Sara Echols. She is also survived by the stepchildren, Walter E. Echols, R. E. Echols and J. M. Echols; 18 grandchildren and step-grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. Alfred Tarvin, of Rome.

Speeding Planes Transfer Mail At Candler Field

For the first time in the history of aviation the act of transferring sacks of mail from one plane to another, while both were speeding at a rate of 100 miles an hour, 2,000 feet above the earth, was performed Friday afternoon at Candler field.

The plane first carrying the mail was piloted by Steve Stevens with George Shealey acting mail clerk, dropping the mail bags—10 in number—on a rope to the receiving ship, which was piloted by Capt. H. H. Warren, Jr. The mail bags were then picked up by the receiving ship, which was then turned around and the mail was transferred to the receiving ship.

The stunt, first scheduled for early Friday afternoon, was postponed until about 2:30 o'clock Friday morning because of unfavorable conditions for the performance of the feat.

The entire affair from the time the sacks were put into one plane, transferred to the other and brought back to ground, was filmed by Dudley Reed, staff newspaper photographer for M-G-M and will be shown in theaters the country over.

Swanee Taylor, producer of the air show, held on Friday 28-29 at Candler field, one of the originators of the idea, was enthusiastic over the effort because it was the first time a plane transfer of mail would come into universal use, reducing the all-important element of time.

Taylor also said Friday that the event would be featured on the program of next week's air show.

TWO HOMES ROBBED WHILE RESIDENTS ARE OUT OF CITY

Burglars in two instances Friday took advantage of the absence of residents who are out of town on vacations to enter homes, according to police reports.

Neighbors of J. O. Hood, of 1320 Lafayette avenue, advised that they saw a negro leaving the Harris residence through a rear window and summoned police who found the house empty. The burglar was not seen.

The home of Harry Block, of 42 Woodcrest avenue, S. W., was entered some hours later and in this case the burglars were detected by neighbors who saw a form leave the house about 8 o'clock at night. Officers were summoned and again examination showed that the house had been thoroughly searched but the extent of the loss could not be determined without the aid of the owner.

SALVATION ARMY TO HOLD SERVICES IN NEW CITADEL

Final services in the house warming revival at the new West End citadel at Lawton and Gordon streets will feature a series of 17 Salvation Army evangelistic meetings to be held Sunday. The public is invited to all services.
